

Name _____

Before Speaking...

Read the title of the Speaking component. Look at the illustration on the Explore screen. What do you think the dialogue is going to be about?

While Speaking...

1. What is the setting?

- Home
- Restaurant
- Street
- Work
- Airport
- Hotel

Other _____

2. What is the relationship between the speakers?

- Boss/Employee
- Waiter/Customer
- Sales Assistant/Customer
- Friends
- Family
- Doctor/Patient

3. How does the relationship between the speakers affect the language that they use?

4. How do the speakers feel about each other?

- | | |
|-------------------------------------|-------------------------------------|
| <input type="checkbox"/> Friendly | <input type="checkbox"/> Sad |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Angry | <input type="checkbox"/> Happy |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Amused | <input type="checkbox"/> In love |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Respectful | <input type="checkbox"/> Interested |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Puzzled | |

5. What are the speakers doing?

- Apologizing
- Complaining
- Asking for help
- Asking for information
- Giving advice
- Disagreeing
- Agreeing

Other _____

After Listening...

1. List new words and phrases you have learned.

2. Extension Ideas:

- Role-play the dialogue with a fellow student.
- Imagine what could have happened before or after the dialogue. Write the script and role-play it with a fellow student.
- Rewrite the speaking dialogue using a different register. For example, transpose from formal to informal, friendly to unfriendly, etc.

